Dear Friends,

We concluded our annual celebration of 40 Hours this Friday evening. The Second Vatican Council reminds all of us that the Eucharist is the source and summit of Christian life. The Eucharist which is Jesus Christ made present to us is the "source" for it is truly from the Lord that we have been given the gift of life and every other gift which flows from it. It is the Lord who continues to give to us every blessing and even the faith, strength, and courage to experience His peace in times that seem anything but "blessed". The Eucharist is the "summit" since our communion with Him in this sacrament is the foretaste of our perfect unity with Him in heaven.

While the Feast of St. Leo the Great was November 10, we continue the celebration through the weekend as he is our Patron Saint. Little is known about the early life of St. Leo the Great. We do know that he was a deacon of the Church of Rome when he was elected Pope in 440 AD. St. Leo is one of the only two Popes in two thousand years to be called "the Great." St. Leo preached with great eloquence and clarity the truth of the Catholic faith in a world increasingly led astray by serious misunderstanding and heresy. He opposed the heresy of Pelagianism which taught that grace was not necessary for salvation, but was rather a bonus that God granted to those who earned it by their good works. As Pope, St. Leo the Great was forceful and unambiguous in his Christological teaching which affirmed the full divinity and humanity of Christ. In fact his most famous writing, commonly known as the Tome of St. Leo (449), was the basis of the Council of Chalcedon's (451) dogmatic definition of Christ as one Divine Person possessing two complete natures, human and divine.

St. Leo the Great was Pope during the middle of the fifth century, a troubled time when barbarian armies were ravaging the once mighty Roman Empire. For all intents and purposes, the Western Empire was in total political and military collapse and there was a vacuum of political and cultural leadership. Pope St. Leo filled the void and became the advocate for the temporal as well as spiritual needs of his flock. He is perhaps most famous for persuading Attila the Hun to abandon his plans to sack the city of Rome and to withdraw his forces beyond the Danube river (452). St. Leo once again was the spokesperson for the Roman citizenry in 455 when the Vandal barbarians swept into Central Italy, securing concessions from them.

Through both his powerful teaching and his leadership, Pope St. Leo the Great strengthened the office of the Papacy making a strong biblical case for the Divine institution of this ministry by examining the biblical evidence for Peter's unique role among the apostles.

The writings that survive by St. Leo, besides his famous Tome, consist of 143 letters and 96 sermons. St. Leo the Great died in 461, is regarded as one of the most important of the Western Fathers of the Church and was declared a "Doctor of the Church" by Pope Benedict XIV in the 18th Century.

Pope St. Leo the Great, Pray for us!

In Christ,

Rev. David A. Whitestone

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA): is a process for bringing into the Catholic Church both those who have never been baptized & those who were baptized in a non-Catholic church. RCIA is also the way for adult Catholics who have never been confirmed to prepare for the final Sacrament of Initiation, Confirmation. We invite any adult who would like to join the Catholic Church, be confirmed, or who is simply interested in learning about the teachings and customs of Catholic Christianity to come and join us. While classes are part of the process, RCIA is more than a class; it is a gradual introduction to the customs, beliefs, practices, and devotions of Catholicism. There is no obligation, only an opportunity to learn! RCIA 2018-2019 classes are Tuesdays from 7:30-9:00 PM in the Guadalupe Room. There is no need to register in advance. Registration will take place in class.

Adult Confirmation: Adults who wish to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation in 2019 need to attend the RCIA classes on Tuesday evenings. Classes continue through Easter 2019. Adult Confirmation will take place in the Spring of 2019.
